As a User Experience and Interface designer, I am always looking for the newest conceptual forms in design and the next paradigm to come. I think the best design comes from strong, clear direction.

EXPERIENCE

PayPal 2016 – Current Product Designer & Design Technologist

- Designing User Experience and User Interface
- Designing solutions by combining design and technology
- Building a design language for future products of PayPal

PayPal 2015 User Experience Design Intern

- Designed User Experience and User Interface
- Built a design language for future products of PayPal

“Worked on a design language of PayPal. I was able to learn about having a vision and suggesting it to designers and developers for better experience all over PayPal products.”
